

THE NAMING

lion

God told Adam to name all the animals.
What name did Adam give to each of these animals?

This animal looks like a bandit because it always wearing a mask. I think I will call it a _____.

This animal has a long mane and a loud roar. I think I will call it a _____.

This animal lives in the forest, eats honey, and sleeps during the winter. I think I will call it a _____.

This animal has no legs but can move very fast. I makes a sound to warn you to "beware." I think I will call it a _____.

This animal has two legs and it flies. Its body is covered with bright colored feathers. I think I will call it a _____.

This animal has four legs and carries its house around on its back. I think I will call it a _____.

This animal has four legs and a very long neck. I think I will call it a _____.

This animal has eight legs and lives in the water. It moves about by squirting jets of water. I think I will call it an _____.

This animal has eight legs. It spins a web to catch its dinner. I think I will call it a _____.

This animal has no legs at all and lives in the water. I think I will call it a _____.

This animal has two legs and wings, but it isn't a bird. It likes to hunt for its dinner at night. I think I will call it a _____.

This animal has no legs and lives in the water. But it isn't a fish. I think I will call it a _____.

spider

bat

whale

parrot

fish

octopus

snake

turtle

giraffe

raccoon

bear